

BIG NEWS: FIVE-WAY MERGER CREATES THE NEW ILLUMINATE EDUCATION

Illuminate Education, IO Education, SchoolCity, Alpine Achievement, and Key Data Systems have merged to create the largest provider of data platforms, analytics, formative assessments, and a “whole view of the student.”

WHY IT'S GREAT NEWS

All the data within a single platform to provide a holistic view of the child

Most comprehensive platform and content for assessments with data and analytics to enable personalized learning

Ability to assess student learning, then direct to appropriate curriculum and resources

An open, interoperable, standards-based environment

“The combined companies’ expansive capabilities will save teachers time, serve each student’s unique needs, and drive student achievement. Teachers and students will get what they need most – more time on the right task.”
